

Give the Gift of Confidence

Looking for a last minute gift for someone special in your life? We've got you covered! Give your loved ones a gift that makes a lasting difference — a gift to Girls on the Run in their name. This is the perfect time of year to celebrate those who have inspired you, and there's no better way than to honor them than with a gift that will inspire and make a transformative difference in the life of a girl.

Your holiday gift will help us fund 43 new sites during our spring 2017 season and will give girls in our community the confidence they need to take charge of their lives and define the future on their terms.

Don't wait — give now to wrap up your giving this holiday season. We'll even send your loved one a festive card notifying them of your gift of empowerment!

Meet December's Girl Heroes

Angie Buysse & Cynthia Per-Lee!

We are thrilled to recognize Angie Buysse and Cynthia Per-Lee as our December

Girl Heroes! Angie and Cynthia first became connected with Girls on the Run through Angie's work with the SeattleStorm Foundation five years ago, and have remained committed and involved as donors, running buddies, and superstar supporters ever since. They are steadfast cheerleaders for our mission and vision and we can always count on them to share valuable insights and suggestions to positively impact our programming.

Angie and Cynthia were recently recognized as Philanthropy Northwest's 2016 Outstanding Philanthropists for their exceptional work in the Seattle community. Girls on the Run greatly values the ongoing support of this dynamic duo and we are honored to partner with them. When asked why they choose to support Girls on the Run, they responded: "We love the organization's mission and the vision of every girl having the opportunity to know and activate her limitless potential and to be free to boldly pursue her dreams. Who can't get behind that?"

Read more about Angie and Cynthia's philanthropy philosophy and why they've chosen to support Girls on the Run below!
