

Spring 2018 Season Starts March 5th

Our Spring 2018 season is right around the corner! Now is the time to register your girl and ensure she has all the tools and confidence to speak up for herself and unleash her limitless potential. Teams are filling fast, but many sites still have spots! View a list of our program sites and register your girl today!

If you do not see your girl's school listed in the online registration system, but it is listed as a program site on our website, your school may run registration via paper form. If that is the case, please visit your school's front office to pick up a registration form.

GOTRPS Hiring Executive Director Kerin Brasch Retiring

It is with deep gratitude that we announce the upcoming departure of our Executive Director,

Kerin Brasch, this June. As the fearless leader of GOTRPS for the past 9 years, Kerin has transformed the organization, growing the program from serving 158 girls in her first season (spring 2009) to serving 1,900 girls in the spring of 2018. With Kerin's retirement slated for June 30th, we have begun the search for a new Executive Director. View a complete job description and learn how to apply below. Posting will close Friday, March 2nd.

Please join us in congratulating and thanking Kerin Brasch for her remarkable leadership and vision over the last 9 years!

Meet February's Girl Hero

The Enthusiastic and Articulate Youth Ambassador, Jovie Webbeking

This month, we are excited to recognize Jovie Webbeking as our Girl Hero! Jovie is currently an eighth grader at Washington Middle School and will be participating in Heart & Sole, our middle-school program, for her second year in a row. She previously participated in Girls on the Run at Thurgood Marshall Elementary.

As a Girls on the Run Youth Ambassador, Jovie represents our organization through a variety of community engagement opportunities. She has shared her GOTR story for recruitment videos, assisted with raffle ticket sales at our Sneaker Soiree, and volunteered with her mom, Jennifer, at Seahawks training camp, selling yearbooks with proceeds benefiting Girls on the Run. Jovie is often the first Ambassador to volunteer for opportunities and is a passionate and articulate spokesperson for our program.
